

Double Pronouns

What are double pronouns?

Repeating a pronoun twice in the same ASL sentence — once near the beginning and again at the end.

The pronoun does not change. Whatever you opened with is what you close with.

Questions and statements both

Double pronouns are not just for questions. They work the same way in a plain statement.

The pattern

English: Do you like ASL?

The full ASL sentence is YOU LIKE ASL YOU? — the same pronoun opens and closes it.

Practice sentences

Does he like running?

QUESTION

HE LIKE RUNNING HE?

I don't like cashews.

STATEMENT

I DON'T-LIKE CASHEWS I.

She has a cat.

STATEMENT

SHE CAT HAVE SHE.

Your turn

Write three sentences using a double pronoun — one question and two statements. Underline both pronouns in each one.
